Goals

- To maintain a prospering restaurant with happy customers.
- Get updates on food trends and information affecting the Food Industry.

Frustrations

- It's annoying having to search everywhere to find information on local trends and preferences on food.
- No organized local chapter on restaurants.

Chipo is a restaurant owner, a mom and a wife and she has a passion for what she does. She hopes to open a second restaurant someday. She's always looking for new recipes for her restaurant and other ways to improve her business. She also enjoys speaking to people in the same industry and sharing business ideas.
